

Prior to requesting our media, please ensure you meet the following requirements:

Requestor Eligibility

- Requestor must be a PhD-holding faculty at a non-profit, degree-granting, academic institution.
 - Requestor must email us a direct link to their official faculty profile on their institutional website that lists their credentials as a PhD-holding faculty.
 - If you are a student, please have your faculty advisor submit the request form on your behalf and email us the name of the student.
 - If you are a research staff but do not have a faculty title, please email us individually and we will determine if you meet our eligibility criteria.
 - Please ensure that the statement below is signed and dated.
-

ANET Statement of Use

In accepting the ANET materials, I agree not to make the ANET available to the media (television, magazines, etc.) or to place them on any internet or computer-accessible websites. I also agree not to publish the ANET in any print format – including JOURNALS, newspapers, etc. I also agree that I will not provide the ANET materials to profit making companies or organizations and I agree not to distribute my username and password to unauthorized parties.

Requestor Name: _____

Requestor Academic Email: _____

Date: _____

Signature: _____

*Please include in your email a direct link to your academic profile page that lists your name and credentials.

*Access to the downloads is only possible after we have received a signed and scanned copy of the ANET Statement of Use.

Provided that you meet our eligibility requirements, you will receive a username and password and the link to download the ANET within 30 days of receiving your signed copy of the ANET Statement of Use. This link should not be shared, distributed, or linked to from another website.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at media@cseamedia.org. Please do not call the CSEA or email other members of our center with matters pertaining to the request and download of the ANET. Thank you.